

I oppose the attempt by the Consumer Banking Association to override Indianas telephone privacy laws regarding telemarketing. When I listed my phone number as a no-call number that is exactly what I wanted. If I wish to conduct business with the banks I will contact them at my convenience. I enjoy not being disturbed by unwanted phone solicitations.